Reviews of the 777 Great Clean Jokes by Jennifer Hahn

Every day I call my mother and, after talking about grand children and the weather, she expects a joke. Sometimes more than one. This book filled this role admirably. It everything from silly one liners to lengthy shaggy stories. She then retells the jokes and has gained reputation as a wonderful joke teller. Make you mother happy, buy his book and read it to her.

I'm a high school teacher, and I like to treat my classes to a Chuckle of the Day. It can be hard to find jokes that are just good, clean fun. I would spend a lot of time some days searching around for an appropriate joke. This book fills my needs easily. I can open up to just about any page and find a fresh, decent joke. I often get groans from the class on some of the jokes, but that is part of the fun! Good bargain...

My son's cub scout troop tells jokes while they are waiting for parents to show up for pack meetings and while all of these are clean, most of them aren't beyond the humor of an 8 year old and lots of them are even short enough for them to remember. At an age when kids are just figuring out what makes a good "joke" and are really interested in knowing some, this was just what we needed.

Great for the kids. However the grandkids lost the book somewhere in the house!! As usual, they claim they never touched or saw it. Oddly, my son used to make the same claim. Therefore, the apple does not fall far from the tree!!! I think it is a great choice

Fun book. I can think of at least 3 people I'd love to give this book to. The jokes are funny. I wish it had more short jokes and not as many long ones though. But hey, clean jokes. Who doesn't love um.

Malalanim

Its good, but some are more like stories rather than jokes

There aren't many joke books that are appropriate for young people...but this qualifies! The jokes sometimes are groaners but always fun. I'm sending this one to my surgeon, who told me jokes all during a biopsy (I guess he wanted to distract me). I thought he could use some new material... ;)
