IN LIFE'S JOURNEY WE ALL GET THE OPPORTUNITY TO WEAR THE SAFFRON ROBE. . . Ready yourself for the mystical journey of a life time! Here are the adventures of Tibet's greatest astral traveler. T. Lobsang Rampa studied from his youth the art of traveling out of the body. He realized early that what we see is not all that exists. . . With the opening of the Third Eye we extend our vision of the vast universe which NOW shows no bounds. Journey with Rampa as he grows up in Tibet to become one of the first Walk Ins, recognized world wide, having taken over the body and mind of a less than noble Englishman. Here are his meetings with the Council of Masters, who taught him to understand and contemplate all matters mystical, his exploration and use of magical crystals as well as how to read the human aura. Learn how you can also wear the Saffron Robe and walk in the footsteps of this great avatar. This was one of Rampa's favorites works, because he said it did the best to teach others how to wear the clothes of a king, yet continue to act humble, but to accept all the rewards that are due YOU in life.

Loved the story. Love to hear about out-of-body experiences. Tibet was a wonderful land. Chinese communists

Messed it up. Being a believer in divine Providence, the wrongs done there will someday be made right. Love and justice will prevail

The Saffron Robe has a way of really placing you in the authors shoes. Quite an important and intriguing part of a Buddhist monks beginnings.

BlackHaze

Great book. Very informative. Definately worth owning by any person with an active interest in metaphysics. I recommend this book wholeheartedly.

Skunk Black

An interesting but dated novel. Not to be taken at all seriously

Rayli

This was, as indicated by the title, a book detailing (beautifully as always) life inside the Lamasery and fits quite nicely in with other writings on Lobsang's early life. Nothing earth shattering but proud to have it in my collection.
